Product description

This high-low velour is inspiring; not only because of its unusual pattern, but also because of its modern color palette and enormous durability. This high-low velour is inspiring; not only because of its unusual pattern, but also because of its modern color palette and enormous durability.

The special look is created by unevenly resolved, organic shapes. Its matt-silky sheen makes the colors shine. Powdery sorbet colors such as blushed rosé, sage and pistachio harmonize with deep tones such as jade, royal blue and eggplant. Finely graduated natural tones round off the color palette. A total of 18 colors are available.

Thanks to the branded Trevira CS yarn used, Chloe is exceptionally hard-wearing with 200,000 abrasion cycles.

Chloe can be used as a decorative fabric and upholstery fabric.
