Product description

Jago is a high-system PU faux leather. It has a natural leather look and exudes a modern vintage look. It is ideal for modern hotel furnishings; from headboards and bed surrounds to seating furniture of all kinds. The naturalness of the faux leather is underlined by the color palette, which focuses on natural and grey tones.

High System PU faux leathers are phthalate-free and particularly soft and resistant to soiling. They are quick and easy to clean. With over 300,000 abrasion cycles, they are durable and robust. Thanks to its permanent bi-elasticity, the material can be easily processed using all common methods in the upholstery industry.
